

Please do not violate my Constitutional Right to privacy by undermining New Jersey's Law to protect its citizens against unwanted telephone solicitations. To do so would put a bad taste in my mouth about the very agency that is supposed to protect this right--the FCC. There are too many abuses already occurring to the people of this country by Businesses in this area and others. Thank you. Robert Reo